TEAM

Client & case support across the firm's trust and estate matters

Jackie Graciano graduated from California State University, Monterey Bay, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications with a minor in Pre-Law, establishing a strong academic foundation in public relations, organizational communication, legal studies, and advocacy. She subsequently earned a Master of Science in Management and Leadership from the University of La Verne, where she further developed her expertise in leadership development, organizational management, strategic planning, and professional administration.

During her academic tenure, Jackie completed an internship with the Monterey County Public Defender's Office, gaining valuable exposure to legal procedures, client relations, case management, and the importance of advocacy within the justice system. This experience deepened her understanding of confidentiality, public service, and effective communication in high-responsibility environments.

Jackie currently works with Prudential Advocate as a paralegal, where she applies her diverse professional background, leadership capabilities, administrative expertise, and commitment to client service. Her combined experience across legal, educational, and corporate settings gives her a well-rounded perspective and a proven ability to adapt, lead, and contribute effectively in dynamic professional environments.
