Tristan Posner is an undergraduate student at the University of Southern California, where he is pursuing a degree in Applied and Computational Mathematics. During his internship with the firm, Mr. Posner assisted attorneys with legal research, document preparation, and case analysis in probate and estate matters.

He demonstrated strong analytical abilities, meticulous attention to detail, and professionalism in all aspects of his work. His experience at the firm reinforced his interest in the intersection of law, quantitative analysis, and client advocacy, and he intends to pursue a legal career following his undergraduate studies.
